WHAT THE Highbrow WILL WEAR

BY BONE ASHE
(Edited by Oliver Herford)

Natty lounge suit—in two or more pieces.

For evening wear. Note extreme length of ankle fray—and luster of knees.

Sporty sporting shoe.

Suitable for guest or waiter at social function. Cost of hire will be furnished to subscribers on application.

Nobby five-button top coat. A note of originality is supplied by pendant thread motif in place of sixth button.

Evening vest—with exclusive egg pattern.

The "Dickey" may be worn over sweater or suitjacket.

The Hyphen Combination underwear and night

The openwork sock.

For afternoon wear. Note

Note extreme width of collar, permitting free access of towel to neck.

Everyone who wants to be anyone at all must have some idea of dress befitting the station of life in which Providence (or his bank account) has seen fit to place him. What then of the Highbrow? Is not the depth of his trouser-fringe, the bag of his knee, the width of his collar-tray, just as important to him as the number of pleats in his shirt bosom to the Parvenu, or the color of his necktie to the Angora Poet?

happy days !

“Tux” is the happy smoke. It just packs the smoker’s calendar so plumb full of fragrant delight that a gloomy day can’t crowd itself in edgewise. That mild, soothing taste of “Tux” has introduced many a man to the joy of pipe-smoking and a regular unending procession of happy days.

WILLIAM COLLIER
Actor—Popular Comedian
“My pipe is always Tuxedo filled. I tried other tobaccos before I discovered Tuxedo. Now there IS no other.”
William Collier

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

By far the most pleasant pipe-smoke in the world is Tuxedo. With Tuxedo you can smoke your pipe all day, and day after day, without a particle of discomfort. Because the rich, sun-ripened Burley leaf of Tuxedo is nature-aped for three to five years. Then the original “Tuxedo Process” removes every trace of bite and irritation.

There is only one “Tuxedo Process”—that’s why there cannot be another tobacco like Tuxedo. The “Tuxedo Process” has been imitated many times, but never successfully.

Smoke Tuxedo for a week and you’ll know you’ve found the tobacco that’s plumb full of content and satisfaction.

Booker T. Washington Stamp - 1940

At a time when Jim Crow dominated the social landscape of the South, George Washington Carver (left) embodied the spirit of scientific progressivism, dubbed the “Black Leonardo” in the 1941 issue of TIME Magazine. Carver developed nearly 300 uses for the peanut, as well as the soy bean, and brilliantly pioneered various uses for agricultural products.

In 1881, Washington founded Tuskegee University in Alabama as one of the nation's premier institutions. Faculty members included W.E.B. DuBois, Vertner W. Tandy, and George Washington Carver. By 1910, Washington's home, The Oaks, was the only residence in Tuskegee with electricity. Additionally, Tompkins Hall (right) was built in 1910 and stood as a beacon of the “New South,” built by construction science students under the tutelage of Robert R. Taylor.
